

FILM PROFESSIONALS' ACCREDITATION

WHO CAN REQUEST ACCREDITATION?

The Festival de Cannes is exclusively reserved to film industry professionals. You need not request accreditation from the Festival if you make a request to the Marché du Film. The Marché du Film badge also allows access to the Festival and its screenings.

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF ACCREDITATION?

Festival accreditation is required to gain access to the Palais des Festivals and the Marché du Film. This accreditation enables one to attend screenings according to the conditions set out in the practical information file which can be printed out online once your request has been validated.

EXPIRY DATE FOR APPLICATIONS

The deadline to make a request for accreditation and to send the requested professional documents is April 1st, 2012. Beyond this date, we cannot guarantee that request will be processed.

Any accreditation requests received after April 1st, 2012 will be subject to severe restrictions: they will only be delivered on an highly exceptional basis upon presentation of supporting professional documents, and will be billed administrative handling costs.

WHAT DO I HAVE TO DO?

Accreditation requests must be made online and will be examined by the competent body as determined by your business activity sector. The accrediting office you belong to sets its own registration criteria, so be sure to study them carefully.

Please note: each office can only grant a limited number of accreditations.
